To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation on behalf of fourth grade teacher, Mr. Kevin Collins. Kevin and I have worked together for over twelve years at North Road Elementary in Fenton, Michigan.

Although Kevin teaches fourth grade, I have had the pleasure of working side by side with him when he was part of our first grade team. We also served together on many school related organizations. With his strong business background, his love for learning, and outgoing personality it is without hesitation that I recommend him for a teaching position. Also, his extensive travel has given him insight into global issues that allows him the opportunity to speak on a variety of topics with firsthand experience. This gives him a significant amount of credibility as he relates to his students.

His teaching style emphasizes the importance of learning by inquiry and working cooperatively with others. He encourages the children's questioning and inquisitive nature and asks that they start thinking for themselves. Most importantly, he stimulates his students' curiosity by setting the foundation for a lifelong desire to learn.

As a colleague and friend for many years, Kevin is a team leader in many ways. Kevin has maintained great rapport with his fellow teaching staff, as well as, his parents and students. Kevin has been an active member on numerous school committees such as Parent Teacher Organization, School Improvement, and has served as our Local Michigan Education Association representative. His love of working with young people has prompted him to write several children books. Over the years, Kevin's published books have been enjoyed by many members of our community. We are fortunate to have Kevin in the Fenton Area Public Schools.

His knowledge, professionalism, and dedication to education, makes Kevin an outstanding candidate for any teaching position within your district. My hope is he can give future students a little bit of the love for learning that he has given to many of our students in Fenton.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Angela Fulton
